

Piano in the Dark

Words and Music by
Geoman and J. Villalon

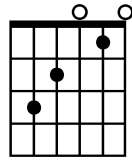

Em

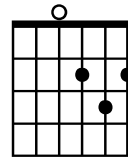

Am

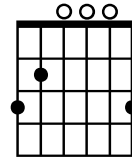

C

D

G

Em Am
Daddy always said
C Em
These are the 88 keys to pain
Am
And daddy always said
D Em
Rinse down the hurt before it stains
Am C Em
But daddy never said that after this not much remains
Am D Em
If only he told her to play of life instead of shame

When the lights go down
Am
And the worlds asleep
D
She plays piano in the dark
G
Piano in the dark
Em Am
She's haunted by a whisky melody
D
When she plays piano in the dark
G
Piano in the dark

Em Am
No one understands
C Em
These are her 88 keys to pain
Am
And no one ever sees her
D Em
Rinse down the hurt before it stains
Am
But now she's finally realised
C Em
Not much of her remains
Am D Em
If only she knew how to play her life like she plays of shame

When the lights go down
 Am
And the worlds asleep
 D
She plays piano in the dark
 G
Piano in the dark
 Em Am
She's haunted by a whisky melody
 D
When she plays piano in the dark
 G
Piano in the dark

Em Am
Daddy always said
 C Em
These are the 88 keys to pain

When the lights go down
 Am
And the worlds asleep
 D
She plays piano in the dark
 G
Piano in the dark
 Em Am
She's haunted by a whisky melody
 D
When she plays piano in the dark
 G
Piano in the dark

When the lights go down
 Am
And the worlds asleep
 D
She plays piano in the dark
 G
Piano in the dark
 Em Am
She's haunted by a whisky melody
 D
When she plays piano in the dark
 G
Piano in the dark