

Read My Mind
(Jade)

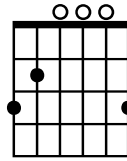

C

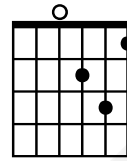

Am

G

Dm

C
In your eyes you look so weary
Am
Fighting light with dark and dreary
C
And even though you can't hear me
G
I'll still sing
C
You go to church and pray on Sunday
Am
You think your sins are cleaned up that way
C G
Don't know forgiveness just begins with you

G C
If you could read my mind
Am
Just read my mind
Dm G
Then you could see what's behind my eyes
G Dm
If you could read my mind
C
Get your hands untied
C G C
Cause the battlefield is tired

C
Get a little bit stupid sometimes
Am
Get a little bit jealous sometimes
C G
Sometimes I'll be unfair but that's just me
C
But I know that I'm not hiding
Am
And I won't let your chains bind me

C G
Because perfection is not the point of this

G C
If you could read my mind
Am
Just read my mind
Dm G
Then you could see what's behind my eyes
G Dm
If you could read my mind
C
Get your hands untied
C G C
Cause the battlefield is tired

G C
If you could read my mind
Am
Just read my mind
Dm G
Then you could see what's behind my eyes
G Dm
If you could read my mind
C
Get your hands untied
C G C
Cause the battlefield is tired

G
If the love made sense
C
Then I think there would be a book
G C
To tell us who is really right and wrong
Am
But I don't want something simple
Dm C G
I don't want to sing a normal song

G Dm C
Let's just close our eyes and let it be
G C
Cause the battlefield is tired

G C
If you could read my mind
Am
Just read my mind
Dm G
Then you could see what's behind my eyes
G Dm
If you could read my mind
C
Get your hands untied
C G C
Cause the battlefield is tired

(slow, One strum each chord)

NC Dm C
Let's just close our eyes and let it be

C G C
Cause the battlefield is tired
